

DAVID MOZER
Seattle, WA 98108-1919 USA
c/o ibike@ibike.org

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

Director, International Bicycle Fund, Seattle, Washington, 1982 to present

Established and Director of non-profit corporation based on responsible business practices (financial, environmental and social justice). Supervising employees, interns and volunteers. Fiscal management. Writing and lecturing on integrated economic development, sustainability, responsible tourism, non-motorized and multi-modal transportation planning, facility engineering, safety education, and cultural diversity. Advising and training non-governmental organizations, community groups and small businesses, on program/business planning and development, and organizational structure. Training and advising Western and African government personnel and non-governmental organizations on issues of sustainability, economic development, environment, transportation, land use planning, appropriate technology, tourism and urban development. Manage information technology program, including designing and managing web sites, purchasing decision on computer hardware and software and supervising remote communications program. Designing and implementing model safety education programs. Providing policy and legislative analysis on transportation programs. Leading training and educational programs, and university lecturing on African and Asian Studies, transportation, tourism and development economics.

Transportation Consultant, Seattle, Washington, 1969 to present

Advising city, county, state and national governments on non-motorized access, and planning, engineering and implementation of transportation facilities, with specialties in: bicycle and pedestrian facility planning and design (roads, intersections and off-road and rail-trail facilities); non-motorized integration with mass transit; road design standards; transportation demand management programs; comprehensive plans; cost/benefit analysis; non-motorized facility demand analysis; bicycle accidents; and safety education curriculum. Working with city, county and state governments on transportation, environmental and equity issues. Expert witness for bicycle accident litigation.

Geography/History/Multi-Cultural/Natural Science Educator, Seattle, Washington, 1982 to present

Developing, directing and leading over 60 months of in-depth, interdisciplinary, educational, cross-cultural programs in Washington State, British Columbia, Tunisia, sub-Saharan Africa (Senegal, Gambia, Guinea, Mali, Liberia, Cote d'Ivoire, Burkina Faso, Ghana, Togo, Benin, Cameroon, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, Malawi, Zimbabwe and Botswana), South Korea, Vietnam, Guyana, Cuba and Ecuador. Training and lecturing on social science [history (African, Mediterranean, Arab, Atlantic and Asia), culture, ethno-botany, politics, economics (macro and micro domestic, international and development), geography, anthropology, sociology, art and religion (Judaism, Christianity, Orthodox, Islam, Buddhism and indigenous African)], agriculture (organic, perma-culture, integrated pest management), conservation (energy and water), and natural history (geology, meteorology, botany and ecology) at university, adult education, and grade school levels. Supervising employees, interns and volunteers. Fiscal management. Teaching high school history and African Studies. Leading training and educational programs, and university lecturing on African and Asian Studies, transportation, tourism and development economics. Coordinated award winning "Voices of Africa" lecture series. Manage information technology program, including designing and managing web sites, purchasing decision on computer hardware and software and supervising remote communications program. This job requires a wide variety of information gathering, planning, problem solving, analytical, multi-tasking and mathematical skills.

Project Engineer, North Star Electric, Seattle, Washington, 2008-09

Task included: updated company Accident Prevention Manual, Site Specific Safety Plans, and CCD book, member of the company safety committee, document control for construction projects, plan review and lighting and device take-offs, requesting bids, analyzing bids and ordering gear, wire, fixtures, devices and other project materials, inventory control, prepared project close-out reports.

Teacher, Lakeside Upper School, Seattle, Washington, 1992-93
Teaching high school history/African studies course and sections of African-American studies course.

Instructor, Heritage Institute, Antioch University, Seattle, WA, 1989 to 1991
Teaching a college level, continuing education, survey course in Africa Studies for K-12 teachers.

Graduate Intern/Economist/Interim Commercial Officer, American Embassy, Monrovia, 1981
Reporting and analyzing Liberian political conditions, economy and development programs (primarily as it affects local government, rural conditions and cultural affairs). Administering and assisting grant applicants for discretionary development funds for self-help economic, rural development and technology enhancement projects. Mediating disputes between renegade soldiers and businessmen. Providing technical consultation to businessmen on market and financial conditions. Aiding American citizens seeking assistance from the US Embassy. Designed, organized and advised credit union for 500 Liberian national employees.

Graduate Research Assistant, Institute For Policy Studies, Washington DC, 1979-1981
Analyzing and documenting world economic conditions, the World Bank's lending policies and multinational corporation financial practices; specifically examining social impact and equity.

Director of Community Organization, Statewide Youth Advocacy, Inc., Juvenile Justice Project, Rochester, New York, 1979
Working with community groups and the juvenile justice system; coordinating legislative initiatives on status offender legislation, and coordinating volunteers.

Coordinator of Research and In-service Training, Peace Corps, Ministry of Education, Lofa County, Liberia, 1976-78
Developing and administering in-service teacher training program serving 75 rural schools. Developing and testing instructional materials for science curriculum. Serving as liaison among citizens, teachers and Ministry of Education officials. Collecting school system data and assessing needs for the Ministry.

Teacher, Peace Corps, Ministry of Education, Lofa County, Liberia, 1975-76
Teaching 7th, 8th and 9th grade science, health, math and geography.

Counselor and Trainer, Seattle Crisis Clinic, Seattle, Washington, 1973-1975
Counseling individuals in crisis. Training volunteer staff in crisis counseling, conflict resolution and referral techniques. Supervising 15 crisis intervention counselors. Evaluating and advising volunteer staff, reviewing client files and writing case plans.

Special Projects Staff, ACLU / Washington, Seattle, Washington, 1973-1975
Researching, writing and analyzing issues of constitutionality and the rights of students, soldiers, LGBT, and prisoners in the legislative and legal departments. Coordinating and training volunteer staff. Mediating disputes between prison officials and prisoners.

ACADEMIC HISTORY

Ph.D. course work in economics (no dissertation, no diploma), University of Washington, Seattle, Washington.
M.A., Applied Economics, The American University, Washington, D.C., 1983. International finance and development, and national planning. Research in LDC debt stabilization, economic adjustment and national welfare.

B.A., The Evergreen State College, Olympia, Washington, 1974. Interdisciplinary major in biology, ecology, economics, human behavior, political history, urban planning and the study of social institutions.

Program on Bicycle Planning and Facilities, The Traffic Institute, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, 1984.

SELECTIVE COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Board Member, Village Bicycle Project, 2007-present
Host Committee, Seattle Green Festival, 2007-2011
Coordinating Committee, Interfaith Creation Festival, 2005-2007
Chair, Washington State Africa Network, 2000-2010
Chair, Washington State Delegation, National Summit on Africa, 1999-2000
Co-founder, and founding Board member, Bike Works (Seattle community bike project), 1996-2006. Taught first youth bike mechanic courses.
Technical Advisory Committee, Northwest Bicycle Federation (predecessor to Washington Bikes) , 1990's.
Chairperson, Cascade Bicycle Club, Government Affairs Committee, 1983-1991.
Member, Beacon Hill Neighborhood Plan Committee, 1990's
Co-founder of the Chief Sealth Trail proposal, and Chairperson of Friends of the Chief Sealth Trail, 1990's.
Board Member, Institute For Transportation And the Environment, early 1990's.
Advisory Board, Institute For Transportation And Development Policy, early 1990's.
Lead promoting rails-to-trail, East Lake Sammamish, late 1980's.
Lead promoting Duwamish River Trail, mid and late 1980's.
Ride Director, Flying Wheels Challenge, 1987, 1988.
Ride Director, Grape Nuts Bike Festival, 1986.
Director, Burke-Gilman/Sammamish River Trail Study, 1985, 1990.
Lead promoting connecting Burke Gilman Trail and Sammamish River Trail "missing link," 1985-1990's.
Local Coordinator, Kodak Liberty Ride Festival, 1986.
Promoter of the Mercer Slough Trail, 1969-1980's

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

International Bicycle Fund Web Site; covering transportation, sustainability, land use planning, environment, safety and economics (over 300 page and 1000 links) 1993-present.
IBF News (semi-annual newsletter) 1991 – 2003.
Technical Handbook of Bikeway Design, (contributor), Velo Quebec, Montreal, 1992.
Comprehensive Bicycle Transportation Policy & Advocacy Handbook, Cascade Bicycle Club, 1991.
Bicycling In Africa, International Bicycle Fund, Bellevue, WA, 1989.
"The Bicycles Dilemma in African Cities," International Bicycle Fund, Aug 1989".
"The Model Path-User Ordinance," Bicycle Forum #22, Winter/Spring 1989.
"Africa: Transportation, Bicycles and Development," AT News, Delft, Dec 1987.
"The West L.A. Velo-Way," Bicycle Forum #15, Missoula, MT, Spring 1987.
"King County Commuting & Recreational Trail Use Analysis," K.C. Parks, 1985.
"Cycling Along With Transit: Mixing Bikes and Buses," Bicycling, August 1984.